developers from industry, and users to assess current methodologies and explore new ideas in e-commerce and web technology. The conference attracted 120 papers from all over the world and each paper was reviewed by at least three program committee members for its merit. The program committee finally selected 42 papers for presentation and inclusion in these conference proceedings. The conference program consisted of 14 technical sessions and two invited talks spread over three days. The regular sessions covered topics such as web application design, intellectual property rights, security and fairness, distributed organizations, web usage analysis, modelling of web applications, electronic commerce success factors, electronic markets, XML, web mining, electronic negotiation, integrity and performance, facilitating electronic commerce, and mobile electronic commerce. There were two invited addresses at the conference. The first was by Anthony Finkelstein, University College London, UK on "A Foolish Consistency: Technical Challenges in Consistency Management". This was a common address to the DEXA, the DaWaK and the EC-Web attendees. The second talk was by Paul Timmers, European Commission, Information Technologies Directorate on "The Role of Technology for the e-Economy".

theory of e-commerce strategy with practice in the real world, it brings together theoretical perspectives based on academic research, integrated use of technologies and large amount of cases, especially those of China. With regard to the innovative technical standards and frameworks, it proposes strategic analysis from a technical point of view. The book is intended for postgraduate students in e-commerce and computer science as well as government officials, entrepreneurs and managers. Prof. Zheng Qin is the Director of Software Engineering and Management Research Institute, Tsinghua University, China; Dr. Shundong Li is a Professor at the School of Computer Science, Shaanxi Normal University, China; Dr. Yang Chang and Dr. Fengxiang Li are both Research Assistants at the School of Software, Tsinghua University, China.

We all know that the current education system has a problem and this problem need to be addressed. The current education system is failing to teach us the information we deserve to know about the modern world. Most subjects taught in the school system is irrelevant and can easily be found on google search. Many people leave university with massive debt and end up doing a job they hate just to make ends meet. We live in a world where change is happening rapidly, but the education system is still not evolving. This book is written to talk about the truth behind the education system. It talks about what I wish teachers should have taught us from a very young age to help us make better decisions for the future. The book also reveals how now is the best time to take advantage to the use of technology and embrace online selling using Social Media Marketing and E-Commerce. I believe it is time for young entrepreneurs to rise and provide a lot of value using cutting edge technology as the internet is currently at its prime. There's a lot of truth inside this book that I encourage you to pick it up and have a read.
